

is an aerial view of the west side or the rear of the club house and Pro Shop the Forest Heights Country Club. In the lower right corner can be seen the driving range. The ninth green of the golf course is at the lower left and the large golf green in the center is a putting practice green. The first tee is seen on the left, center of the picture. The club's eighteen hole golf course is considered to be one of the finest in Southeast Georgia. The picture was made in November of 1968.
